

1. Give yourself a compliment today and thank Jesus for it. Verse: Love your neighbor as yourself. 	2. Today you can compliment someone else. Verse: The mouth of the abundance of heart overflows. 	3. Sing your favorite song loudly and dance to it. Verse: God dwells in praise. 	4. Tell someone a good story from your life. Verse: If you want to see good days, guard your lips so that they speak good things.
5. Invite someone for afternoon tea and light a candle in an empty jam jar (cover the bottom with salt). Verse: Arise and shine. 	6. Take time to read something beautiful from the Bible. Verse: Your word is a lamp to my feet. 	7. Pray today for healing in all areas of life: spirit, soul and body. Verse: Now faith, hope and love remain, these three, but the greatest of these is love. 	8. Enjoy a tangerine and leave the peel on the table, perhaps cut into heart shapes. The fragrance spreads throughout the room. Verse: Let our praise be a pleasant fragrance to you.
9. Make a nice fruit tea with honey this evening and enjoy it with lively or quiet Christmas music. Verse: Taste and see how good the Lord is. 	10. Today, bake hearts so big that you can pass them on as gifts. Verse: Do good first to your brothers and sisters of faith. 	11. Write someone a Christmas card with 24 good wishes. Verse: Bless, that you may be blessed. 	12. Buy yourself a new Christmas fragrance blend of essential oils and light a fragrance lamp at home. Today, say thank you to Jesus for everything in your life. Verse: Whoever offers thanksgiving praises me, and there is the way that I will show him the salvation of God.
13. Take a long walk today and enjoy it with a grateful heart. Verse: Everyone can see from creation that there is a Creator. 	14. Draw your own Christmas card today and write something for a loved one inside. Verse: Whoever knows how to do good... should do it. you are valuable	15. Invite your neighbor to dinner today and cultivate fellowship. Verse: If we walk in the light as HE is in the light, we will have fellowship with one another. 	16. Today YOU can make up a Christmas rhyme yourself: At Christmas there really is a bright light. It is Jesus, don't forget it. We should love HIM with all our strength and so we can see what new things he creates.
17. Smile at someone today who needs it and say a blessing or good wish to them out loud or quietly. Verse: Let your face shine upon me and give me your peace. 	18. Go into the woods and find pine cones... put a little glitter on the tips and you've got a mini Christmas tree. Verse: Let everything that lives praise the Lord. 	19. Today you call someone you haven't spoken to for a long time and tell them something so that the other person can also get a little Christmas joy. Verse: Call upon me in the day of trouble, and I will deliver you, and YOU shall praise me. 	20. Now go on a Christmas market stroll with someone and drink some mulled wine and enjoy the pre-Christmas spirit. Verse: Behold, your King is coming to you.
21. Take a relaxing bath, maybe even with a bubble mat. Verse: Jesus says whoever drinks of the water that I give him will never thirst again. 	22. Think about who might be alone this Christmas and would be happy to receive an invitation. Verse: It is not good for man to be alone. 	23. Choose some nice Christmas music so that your Christmas dinner has nice background music. Verse: We should praise God with cymbals and with bells and with tambourines. 	24. Today is the ideal day to personally and forever invite Jesus into your life and gratefully accept his forgiveness, then you will be his child and can live in love. 